

How would you like to be remembered?

My late Wife and I tried to live by example toward christian principles and faithfulness to Activities, Sunday School worship time for them to emulate as they become adults. Willing to give support to our children and grandchildren of special needs whether financially or whatever ^{needs} to practice the same principle for their family. All family gathering on Holidays and Birth days is special.