

US Army

Feb 1960-Dec 71

Vietnam

Wounded and received a purple heart

Trained in Special Forces in Germany

trained Special ops about two years.

At a United States Army training base located near Bavaria. It is the largest NATO training facility in Europe.

The base is operated by 7th Army Joint Multinational Training Command Facilities including the Tower Barracks. Williston volunteered for this.

Trained Swat Team

Special training in Germany – he volunteered for this

For terrorists / war training

Volunteered to go to Vietnam, then 6 months he got wounded.

“My base got hit, my records and everything else were blown up. My awards and citations were lost. I was hit by shrapnel in my back and my head.” His living relatives are his brother, father and daughter.